INT. OFFICE - DAY

A HUSBAND and WIFE stroll into the office of a PHOTOGRAPHER diligently working at his desk. The photographer sees the couple and waves them over.

PHOTOGRAPHER

Oh hi you two. I'm so happy that you're finally able to come pick up the photos!

WIFE

It's crazy how we've had no time to pick up all the photos from the last 20 years of our life.

HUSBAND

I know right! I can't even remember what you have pictures from.

PHOTOGRAPHER

Oh you know, nothing big. Just some photos of your wedding and the birth of your child.

WIFE

(interrupting)

Oh yeah, that's what it was wasn't it.

HUSBAND

Alright let's not put it off any longer. Let's see these photos.

The photographer frantically types at his laptop and smiles.

PHOTOGRAPHER

Oh you're gonna love this one! This was your first kiss at your wedding... at least I think it is.

The photographer turns his laptop around to reveal a black screen.

HUSBAND

Ummm where's the picture.

WIFE

This is just a black screen.

PHOTOGRAPHER

Well ya see, there was a sign out in front of the venue that said no flash photography and I really didn't wanna break any rules.

HUSBAND

Our wedding was in the middle of a forest...

WIFE

At midnight...

HUSBAND

Only lit by candles...

PHOTOGRAPHER

Welllllll rules are rules!

WIFE

Why was there a sign for no flash photography in the middle of a forest?

PHOTOGRAPHER

Well that's what I thought it said but I don't know. I went to college for photography so I can't really read.

HUSBAND

Alright fine. Well let's just see the first photos of our precious little Timmy.

WIFE

This will be so nice! Our family and friends have been dying to see his baby photos.

HUSBAND

Yeah Grandma Bertha just couldn't hold out for the 16 years it took us to get the photos!

The photographer turns his laptop back around and types vigorously again.

PHOTOGRAPHER

Alright alright let me just... OH FUCK THESE ARE GRAPHIC! Are you sure these were what you wanted?

The photographer turns his laptop to the couple again who look at the screen in shock.

WIFE

Why are these all just pictures of my vagina?!?!?

HUSBAND

You fucking perv! Why I oughta...

The husband gets up to punch the photographer but his wife holds him back.

PHOTOGRAPHER

Listen you were the one who kept saying push so I pushed the button to take a picture every time you said it! You're the one who wanted this!

WIFE

Ughhh fine, well lets get to the photos after the birth.

PHOTOGRAPHER

What photos after the birth?

HUSBAND

You mean to tell me that you only took photos of her squeezing out the baby?

PHOTOGRAPHER

You stopped saying push!

WIFE

Honey lets go!

The wife grabs her husbands hand and starts dragging him to the door until he stops and looks back seemingly realizing something. He races back over to the photographers desk.

HUSBAND

Wait. You can redeem everything if you just have those photos from the time I robbed the jewelry store.

WIFE

(in shock)

You what?!?!?!?

PHOTOGRAPHER

Oh those... yeahhhhh I don't have those anymore.

HUSBAND

You literally just took those last week! Where the hell did they go?!?!

PHOTOGRAPHER

I gave them to the cops.

HUSBAND

(enraged)

You fucking what?!?!

PHOTOGRAPHER

They saw me taking photos and wanted to take a look. I didn't have any other samples of my work so I just gave them the SD card out of my camera and a business card so they could take a look and see if they wanted to hire me.

HUSBAND

They literally just wanted those to catch me committing the crime!

PHOTOGRAPHER

Don't insult my potential customers like that!

WIFE

Honey, let's just go.

A SIREN NOISE is heard in the distance.

PHOTOGRAPHER

Ohhhhh here they come! They must really need some photos taken fast!

The husband and wife give each other a look and sprint off stage.

THE END.
